 Reading Biomedical Science at the University of Manchester

"Teaching at Bosworth was very different from the one I had at home. The small classes and close relationships with the staff were helpful during my stay at Bosworth. It was easy to get into discussions with teachers and ask a lot of questions about areas we didn't understand. Teachers themselves were very accommodating, giving us prepared notes that had better explanations of topics than textbooks and never leaving an unanswered question."

 Reading Actuarial Science at the London School of Economics

"Being at Bosworth was the perfect prep for university since not only did I gain an abundance of knowledge, but I also learned how to be strong on my own when I was away from home. I formed my work ethics here - I was taught to always be punctual and serious in my work and study."
